Part C – Participant Information

Pertinent Dates:

The Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development, Research and Analysis (R&A) Section will use specific client data to determine eligibility. If this training program is new, and if your training institution meets the requirements for eligibility, this program will receive initial eligibility for inclusion on the Eligible Training Provider List (ETPL).

If this training program has been offered over the past few years, please provide the most recent three years of program participant records (if available – see below for required data). You may attach a hardcopy with this application or send an electronic copy.

The R&A Section will contact approved training providers annually to obtain updated participant records. These records are due July 1 of each year. This data will be used to determine subsequent eligibility. Subsequent eligibility is based upon participant completion rates, employment retention and earnings. Failure to provide the required data, or the intentional submission of inaccurate data, may result in program ineligibility. Changes to program name, content, or applicable policies require submission of a revised “Part B – Training Program Information”.

Training Participant Information:

You may provide the participant data via an electronic file, with one record per training program participant exiting the program. You may request a standard Excel spreadsheet if you wish.

Please note: This information is only for programs already in existence, or when R&A contacts you annually for updated participant records.

Required Data:

1. Campus or city location of training
2. Social Security Number and name of student (name is optional)
3. Classification of Instruction Programs (CIP) 6-digit code
4. Name of training, degree or certificate program pursued by participant
