The federal prohibition on the hours 14 and 15 year old minors may be allowed to work is stricter than Alaskan law. Due to this conflict, an employer of 14 or 15 year old minors may find that they are in compliance with State law, but in violation of federal law. For example:

Federal Law

Children 14 and 15 years old may only work:

- Outside school hours.
- No more than 40 hours in any one week when school is not in session.
- Not more than 18 hours in any week when school is in session.
- Not more than 8 hours in any one day when school is not in session.
- Not more than 3 hours in any one day when school is in session.
- Between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. in any one day except during the summer (June 1 through Labor Day), when the evening hours will be 9 p.m.

State Law

Children 14 and 15 years old may work:

- A total of 9 hours of school and work combined in one day.
- Only between the hours of 5 a.m. to 9 p.m.
- No more than 23 hours per week outside of school hours (domestic work and babysitting excepted).
- No more than 6 days per week.

There are certain exceptions to the federal law: for example, children in work-study programs through their schools are exempt from some or all of the hour restrictions.
