Alaska Department of Labor Launches Economic Stimulus Web Site

JUNEAU, Alaska—The Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development has launched a new Web site that contains information about state labor programs that will be supplemented through the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act. The Web site is Labor.Alaska.Gov/Recovery.

The site, which will show taxpayers how ARRA funds are being spent on Alaska Department of Labor programs, will be updated as new information is available.

This new labor Web site is part of Alaska.Gov/Recovery, and Alaska's commitment to provide accountability and oversight of all ARRA programs and projects. More information about how Alaska is putting the recovery act to work can be found at the site.
