Occupational Safety and Health Review Board Sets Oct. 11-15 Hearings in Anchorage

JUNEAU, Alaska—The Alaska Occupational Safety and Health Review Board has scheduled hearings for Monday, Oct. 11 through Friday, Oct. 15, in Anchorage to consider challenges filed by employers contesting citations issued by the Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development.

Citations are based on alleged violations of state occupational safety and health standards filed by the Division of Labor Standards and Safety.

Hearings will begin at 9 a.m. in Room 402, Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development at 1016 W. Sixth Ave. and continue as necessary.

Advance hearing notices are provided to all parties of contested citations. Board hearings are open to the public as required by Alaska statute.

People with disabilities and special needs who need accommodations should contact Sharon Busch at 907-465-2709 by Friday, Oct. 1.
